"Mayor Thompson's utterances and actions are helping history more than anything else." D. C. Munroe, of Princeton university and former president of the association, declared. "His attack was so ridiculous that people are thumbing through their books to learn the real truths,

"Big Bill's' 100 per cent American campaign has been one of the greatest agents for the proper teaching of history—although he doesn't realize it," Munroe continued.

"Over in Great Britain we regarded it as a piece of amusing American humor put on by a clever politician," Professor Robert S. Rait, royal historian for Scotland, commented.

"Thompson raised the issue of freedom in teaching history that we have been trying to bring to the attention of the American public for years," Evarts B. Greene, professor of history at Columbia university, formerly with the University of Illinois, and vice president of the association, declared.

Even A. M. Schlessinger, of Harvard university, whose text book "New Viewpoints in American History," was ordered burned by Mayor Thompson, holds no ill feeling against "Big Bill."

"In fact. I ought to thank him for boosting the sale of my textbook," Schlessinger said.

A police shakeup was effected by Chief of Detectives Herman Cline late today. Several detective captains who had been actiye in leading the police forces in the kidnaping and murder manhunt were removed from headquarters posts to outlying stations, usually termed by members of the forces as "out in the sticks."

Cline denied the shakeup was because of police "mistakes" made during the Marian Parker case as rumored about police headquarters. He said the changes were made solely to "improve the forces in the central detective bureau to cope with the unusual increase in violent crimes."

Cline cited 13 robbery reports in the last 24 hours as evidence of the crime

Seaboard Will Take Over Georgia, Florida, Alabama Railroad for New Cut-Off

Interstate Commerce ORDER OF DE MOLAY Commission Grants Per- MEMBERS. TO OPEN Ada S. Woolfolk, wishes to thank all mission for Absorption CONVENTION TODAY of 181-Mile Railway.

Acquisition of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railroad by the Seaboard

Acquisition of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama railroad by the Seaboard Air Line, permission for which was granted Wednesday by the interstate commerce commission in Washington, was one step in the announced plan of the latter road to open up a new cut-off route from middle western points into Florida.

Richmond, Ga., the northern terminus of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama is on the main line of the Seaboard Air Line between Savannah and Montgomery, Ala. This will afford a more direct connection for western traffic moving to Florida since the Georgia, Florida and Alabama crosses the Jacksonville-River Junction branch of the Seaboard at Tallahassee, Fla., and plans are said to be under way to route trains to the west coast via Perry and short links to be constructed to connect with Seaboard lines in west central Florida.

Before his death, S. Davies Warfield, president of the Seaboard, announced that the road was planning the new and shorter alternative routes and intimated that acquisition of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama would be one of the links in the project.

Coursing south from Richland, Ga., the Georgia, Florida and Alabama would be one of the richest agricultural sections in the southeast, which is now undergoing extensive development.

Short lines to Columbus, Ga., and Alabama Ca. connect with the Georgia.

Albany, Ga., connect with the Georgia, Florida and Alabama at Richland, Ga., and those cities would be af-Ga., and those cities would be afforded alternative routings for western freight under the consolidation.

At the time he made his announcement, Mr. Warfield also said the Seaboard was planning direct rail connection between Atlanta and Savannah. No move toward realization of this plan has been reported. The Seaboard already owns the Macon, Dublin and Savannah railway, extending between Macon and Vidalia. Ga., where it connects with the Savannah-Montgomery line.

AUTHORITY GRANTED TO TAKE OVER LINE.

Washington, December 28 .- (A)-

Washington, December 28.—(P)—Authority to take over the Georgia-Florida-Alabama railroad, a 181-mile line, running from Richland, Ga., to Carrabelle, Fla., was granted the Seaboard Air Line today by the interstate commerce commission.

Under the transaction, the Seaboard will lesse the Georgia-Florida-Alabama property for 99 years and will pay an annual rental which will allow the payment of interest and dividends on an issue of $1,750,000 in six per cent bonds and $1,500,000 in five per cent preferred stock, on an issue of $1,750,000 in six per cent bonds and $1,500,000 in five per cent preferred stock.

The Seaboard also will pay $1,000 in cash for the common stock of the road, which is to be perated in future as a part of the Seaboard system.

By acquiring the Georgia, Florida and Alabama system, the Seaboard Air Line's application to the commission said, substential advantages in operation will be attained.

Using the Georgia line, the Seaboard will have a shorter route between Montgomery, Ala., and Florida points for moving traffic entirely under its control. In addition, the Georgia line will connect up the present Montgomery-Savannah line of the Seaboard with its River Junction-Jacksonville line, thus forming a bridge route between two arms of the present Seaboard system.

"In 1926 more than 36 per cent of the Georgia company's total revenues were derived from the 'bridge' traffic of the Seaboard," the commission said, in granting the Seaboard's application, "and 76.6 per cent were derived from the traffic interchanged with the Seaboard." The Georgia company's line is said to be a natural feeder of the Seaboard and doubt is expressed as to the ability of the Georgia company to operate successfully without the support of the Seaboard.

"Improvement in service will result from the operation of through trains over the line of the Georgiacompany and the elimination of the present system of rebilling freight at junction points."

Most of the securities of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama company are held by the estate of the late Mrs.
Cora B. Williams. Under the plan presented to the commission, it was said that the $1,750,000 bond issue of the Georgia company would be sold and the proceeds used for the construction of a hospital. The executors of the estate expect to retain control of the $1,500,000 of preferred stock in the Georgia company, using the dividends for maintaining the hospital.

Commissioner Eastman dissented

He has won an enviable reputation as a choirmaster, building up a choir whose repute extends far beyond the confines of Atlanta. He has written several musical compositions that have found favor in churches throughout the country and this latest and most ambitious composition is said to excel in quality and beauty anything he has ever done. It is believed that he is the first organist in the south to compose a communion service. The aervice will be sung by a choir of 35, led by Mrs. Sam A. Waycross, Ga., December 22.—
There is a belief here that Corbett Odum, Jacksonville automobile methanic, found in a dying condition beneath an overturned automobile near Waycross early Christimas morning, came to his death through tolence.

This theory is lased on statements made to Ware county officers to the effect that bloody fingerprints were found on Odum's pocketbook, and that a monkey wreuch, with bloodstains on it, was found in the car. Odum, who was en route from Jacksonville to Bennettsville, S. He was never conscious.

Hopes Change to Eastern Time Will Be Adopted

Editor, Constitution: The question of eastern time for Atlanta will be taken up for decision on January 3. Several years ago, I was a resident of the city of Atlanta, when a peti tion was presented to the Junior Chamber of Commerce by Messrs. George P. Jordan, P. W. these offices and it causes serious inconvenience and delay in not having the same time in the two cities. With the rapid development of rail and air transportation, the distance between the east and the south has been materially shortened, and we are about to enter into an era of greater development along these lines.

The establishment of eastern time would not only be of material benefit to the commercial world, but it would also give the opportunity to broaden the social side of life, by permitting the employees to be off an hour earlier in the afternoons, during which time they could engage in such sport activities or recreation as would be of physical and material benefit to them, and in this day and time it is important to maintain the efficiency and morale of the officer and employee.

It does not seem to me that there should be any opposition to the establishment of eastern time in the cify of Atlanta, when the matter has been given due thought and consideration, because those who might object to the change can easily readjust the opening or closing of their factories or offices to such time as will be most convenient to themselves and they should not oppose or stand in the way of the progress of a city in/which they are so vitally interested.

Opinions Differ, But All Are Made by the Same Process By Robert Quillen-

The most unreasonable of all human follies consists in hating the other man because his opinions are not like yours. For his opinions were formed in the same way that yours were formed, and in his place you would believe as he does.

Self interest is the basis of all opinion, and the convictions a man holds most dear are nothing more than a fondness for the bridge that carries him over.

This is not cynicism, but a simple statement of fact. We get our living out of our friends, for those who dislike us will not patronize us. Friends are people who in some way pay us a profit. They buy our goods, or please our vanity, or entertain us, or satisfy our

The general who leads the enemy's forces may be a greater master of strategy, a braver man and a finer gentleman than the general who leads our forces; but to us he is a great rogue and our own general The man who grinds our ax wins our praise. The statesman who fathers a law to benefit the many at our expense is a fool and a knave; the statesman who fathers a law that injures many

The individual who disagrees with us is a fool; the one who agrees with us is a wise man. The law that interferes with the other man's way of life and doe not disturb us is just and reasonable; the law that does not affect the other man but infringes on liberties dear to us is idiotic and tyrannical. Any tax law is a good law if it places the burden on someone else.

Any religion is a good religion if it promises a heaven for us and provides a hell for those we don't like. Private ownership seems reasonable if you have property; communism seems reasonable if you have nothing and others have much.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Harpersville, Ohio. You have stated in response to a question, that the dead are not beyond the reach of God's mercy and that it is a legitimate conclusion that they are not beyoud the reach of prayer. Does not such a position pre clude the power of elective choice? In other words, if one can do as he pleases while here on earth with the thought that his relatives or some of his friends may take enough interest in him to pray him into heaven after he dies what incentive would some have to do God's will? The controlling incentive for the oing of God's will is the purity and peace it brings to the mind of the loer. Hence the person who lives for the glory of God and the service of his fellow men enjoys the assurance that for him more life and fuller lies beyond. Several meanings can be attributed to your phrase "elective choice." Take two examples. If by it you mean that ascribed to God by which some souls are predestined to eternal bliss and others to eternal despair, for me this conception is diametrically op-posed to Christ's teachings. Again if by "elective choice" you mean that a man's ability to exercise wise pref-erences necessarily ends with death, or otherwise dodge honest work like to refer to our favorite pastime as "my Lord, we thank Thee for this day work" and when we tell this often For these hours of work and play ourselves, sometimes even staging a complete breakdown from "overwork." Did anyone ever hear of an honest laborer having such a "breakdown?" No, it is only the bird that avails himself of every trick to escape work, and it is his mind that gives under the strain, more than his body. If this world were not given to the trick-sters for the exploitation of the saps, we ought to deem the slightest hint of a "nervous hreakdown" sufficient to convict, and toss the guilty one into a special nut hatchery where he could have the medicine he sorely needs—honest labor. The weariness that comes from studying, especially subjects one doesn't like, is rather ennuithan fatigue. Mental effort involves insignificant expenditure of energy and physiological tests have shown little metabolism. Physical work or exercise is the refreshment the student needs. If he gets sufficient exercise he can study more or to better purpose.

Would you kindly suggest to a young mother a good evening and morning prayer to teach a child seven years of age?

Here are three prayers, two for morning and one for evening, which may meet your need. Their poetical form is more easily learned by the little ones and stays with them longer. Many adults can repeat the versea taught them as children by their mothers, and not a few do so. I know an aged statesman who throughout his life has never failed to follow this custom on retiring at night.

For these hours of work and play, For the shining sun above. For Thy great and tender love; Help us. Lord, Thy will to do, Make us loving, kind and true.

become part of the groundwork for far-reaching practical applications, as in radio and telephony, Davisson's coworkers declare. Dr. L. R. Germer, who joined with him in the experiments, has begun to apply it to support belief that the geometrical relation of atoms is different at the surface of crystals and in the interior.

A vacuum tube device with an electron beam trained on a single crystal of nickel was used in the experiments, details of which were announced for the first time. Scattering of the beam was found to be governed by the same laws affecting X-rays, which had already been compared hypothetically with radie waves and visible light.

The beam was supplied by a hot fliament, as in an ordinary radio thermionic tube. Though Davisson's results thus concern only free electrons, some observers said they confirmed the Schroedinger findings with respect to wave like characteristics of electrons within the atom.

In this way the newly expounded idea is linked with the great superstructure of the electronic theory. Whether it will survive to be written into textbooks or into the shifting mass of scientific hypotheses remains to be seen its own proponents agree.

We must disprove it fully and finally before. Esmee, dear, and I asking too much? Do you think you could entrust your life to the care of one of whom you know so little? Perhaps it is unfair to press for an answer now. I wouldn't have uttered one word of my secret thought if you hadn't told me what that lawyer said Bat my heart was full to overlowing, so when I heard that you were not beyond my reach because of a great fortune. I could not help blurting out the truth. And it really is true that I love you. Why should we be afraid 4t love, exeu thought we first met two dive area. The reach and the love is a definite and the could not help blurting out the truth. And it really is true that I love you. Why should we be afraid 4t love, exeu though we first met two dive area. Why should we be afraid of love, excu though we first met two days ago? True love is a definite and eternal thing—like death. The great events of life happen like that. You and I can be just as certain today that we love each other as we would that we love each other as we would the first time, he heard De Braganza's voice.

"You were kind enough to say that you did not look for a definite reply now," she murmured. "It would be rather impossible to give one, dear But sometimes fate can be kind, and maybe she is disquosed that way towards ns. . . And—no more shocks today, please! "Oh, I shall do that, I—" meet me again until 1 send for you. It-it will be soon!"

They rose, and walked away together as sedately as any other young couple in Hyde park that afternoon. Never, perhaps, since that green and leafy oasis was plucked from the spoilers' bands for the benefit of a great city had two people in love tacity exchanged vows of everlasting fealty within its confines under the fealty within its confines under the like conditions. They could neither embrace nor kiss. Convention order-ed that they must remain apart. Still.

Cohen Was Recommended by Coach Dan McGugin of Vanderbilt.

Baton Rouge, La., December 28.—
(P)—Less than two months after remewing his contract early in October as head coach and athletic directors at Louisiana State university for sky years and at an annual salary of $10.000, M. J. "Mike" Donahue, one of the outstanding figures in southern conference football for the past twenty years resigned, it became known today through a formal announcement by Thomas W. Atkinson, acting president of the institution.

Coach Donahue will be succeeded by Russell Cohen, whose five-year contract as first assistant to Coach Wallace Wade at the University of Alabama, expires January 1, 1928. Cohen's salary and the term of years his contract provides for was not announced.

Donahue has no plans for the future, he said, after refusing to reveal what brought about his resignation at L. S. U. He would make no comment on reports that dissatisfaction had been expressed by members of the university alumni association over the showing made by football teams under his tutelage for the five years he has been at the institution.

President Atkinson had no statement to make other than that he received Donahue's resignation late in Sovember. He did not disclose why its announcement was withheld.

Cohen comes to L. S. U. highly recommended by Coach Wade, whom he assisted in producing three consecutive conference champion teams and by Coach Dan McGugin, of Vanderbilt.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Mike Donahue, famous as a Yale quarterback late in the nineteenth century, is one of the pioneers of southern football, having been coaching successively at Auburn and Louisiana State for almost a quarter continu were among the leading victories his teams won in his late years at Auburn.

He also carried the Plainsmen one year to West Point and gave one of the mightiest Army elevens of years a hard fight before his eleven was finally subdued.

The Donahue "system" was long one of fundamentals, his lines at Auburn standing monumental to his coaching prowess. He developed such forward stars as Caton, Ollinger, Warren and Sizemore at Auburn during his last years there while Shirling, Shirey, Jackson and Ducote were among backfield luminaries he produced.

At Louisiana State, Donahue's success, however, was mediocre. While there, though, his teams beat Indiana among others outside the conference. The 1927 season was marked by rapid rises and fast falls. After tying Alahama early in the season, the Baton Rouge Tigers were in turn beaten by Ole Miss, Georgia Tech and Tulane. Russell Cohen, who succeeds Donahue, has been Wallace Wade's principal assistant since he went to Alabama. Cohen has proved exceedingly valuable as a scout to the Tide and also in aiding in line and backfield coaching.

A North Georgia Playground.

It is supposed to be a far cry from baseball player to real estate developer, but that is the recent history of "Cy" Hawkins, one of Georgia's best-known semi-pro diamondeers

After a lapse in our pleasant friendship of nearly two years we meet Cy to find that the old-time home run slugger has caught himself in the north Georgia boom. To be more explicit, Cy is making a little boom all his own up in a valley nestled between the peaks of the Blue Ridge near Jasper.

This valley is called Pleasant Valley, and it is just that. It is just kind of place you would expect a "he-man" like Cy to select for his real estate ventures and for his own summer home. The development is called Grand View Estates and part of the ' Valley lake, deep down in the dell. You might think that we were trying to sell you a lot, but our interest just will not stay down when we get to talking about the mountain country of north Georgia and its possibilities as a national playground. Cy has a great dream and here's hoping it will continue to come true as it has in the past few months.

Good News.

More dope comes to hand about Paul Strand, the big outfielder who was purchased from Portland by Reil J. Spiller to replace Mule Haas in center field for the Crackers. And it is not exactly bad news, either.

It shows that Paul has been on a steady gain at the plate for the past six years, though those years brought his total to 16 in professional baseball. Last year, as stated before, he shook the atick at .355 with the Portland club and had 18 home runs and 39 doubles in the total.

He is a right-handed hitter and hits to left field, a pretty good place to stick 'em in the Cracker park if you are looking for home runs. The dope shows that he is the only man in organized baseball who can boast of having pitched a no-hit, norun game and having led two leagues in batting.

If experience is a requisite to good baseball, then Paul should set the Southern league on fire this coming year. He has played in nine leagues in the United States, including both major leagues and the American association. Needless to say, if Mr. Strand can hit around .350 or better next year in the Southern he will be of great value to the Crackers, particularly if he can stick the pill in the colored stands with a modicum of regularity.

New York, December 28.—A cycle of fisticuffs, from bare knuckle days on the English turf to $3,000,000 gates and "600 millionaires," was completed today when Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion of the world, was elected a member of the exclusive Madison Square Garden

Tunney's election came as a surprise and somewhat of a shock to the boxing world, as the Madison Square Garden club is composed largely of those men of finance and society so proudly referred to by Tex Rickard as his "600 millionaires." The starched white shirt fronts of the Madison Square Garden club gleam from the front row seats of every prize fight these winter nights, and many of the club members are interested in the corporation which, with Rickard as its president and general manager, control the new Madison Square Garden.

The club was organized when the new $5,000,000 garden was completed and the domination of Rickard in the boxing business was established. Its

T. J. M. Daly, of 1050 Ponce de Leon apartments, is singing a song entitled, "Ain't It a Grand and Glorious Feeling?"
And he has very good reason to be warbling said lyric.

Here's the reason. In playing the Piedmont golf course with Johnny Suggs, Gilbert Little and J. E. Targett the singer of the above song drove in the general direction of number nine green. None of the players saw the ball hit but they knew it was close to the green if not on it. They all went down and looked some time for the ball but failed to find it. Just about the time they had given it up for lost it was found reposing peacefully in the cup where all good golf balls are supposed to ge but do not.

Mr. Daly is now a member of the famous Dodo club and is entitled to any and all of the trophles which go with the feat.

Yankees, Giants, Pirates Seem Satisfied To Try Again With Last Year's Campaigners.

Washington bought the once-great George Sisler from the Browns at a reported price of $25,000, which put Bucky Harris in a good position for making trades but little else. And then Ken Williams was sold down the river to Boston by the Browns. Wil-liams hits home runs occasionally but he's getting rather old. Cleveland is in the throes of housecleaning. A home town firm is run-ning the club. Billy Evans. a home-towner, has the high sounding title of general manager, and Roger Peck-inpaugh, who grew up on the Cleve-land sandlots, will manage the club. The Indians, however, have done little as yet to add to the playing strength of the club. And they also need pitchers, plenty of them.

With that comprising all or the greater part of the trading and buying done by American league clubs this year, it seems that the Yankees

Giants Remain Same.

John McGraw seems satisfied with what he has, which includes Hornsby and Roush. The Giants made a pretty good go of it last summer and may do better this year.

The Roston Braves got themselves new manager, replacing Dave Ban-roft with Jack Slattery. Slattery is a bench manager, whereas Bancroft was still a good ball player. So the Braves now lack one more player than they did last season. That won't help Simplification Desired.

There seemed to be desire on the part of the officials to have the rules made simpler. With this in mind, the Eastern Football Officials association talked over the recommendations is the commendations of the commendati tions it plans to make to the rules

N. C. A. A., announced that his or-ganization would take no part in the Army-Navy eligibility dispute. Seven coaches of the "Big Ten" conference were guests at a luncheon to day. An interesting bit of news came out of this informal gathering in the form of an explanation of the "two-team" plan suggested for the "Big Ten" by Dr. Herbert Little, of Michi-Weiman Likes Two-Team Plan.

Tad Weiman, who stepped into Fielding Yost's shoes at Michigan, said that the plan involved no radical changes and he expected it to work at Michigan.

"The plan does not call for two teams of equal strength," he said. "Rather, we are to have what amounts to a first and second team. We plan to shift men from one squad to an other when the occasion demands it, choosing the squads on each Thursday before the games on Saturday."
Dr. Clarence Spears, of Minnesota, is not enthusiastic about the "two team" plan.

may do better this year. The St. Louis Cardinals made a wise move when they relieved Bob O'Farrell of his managerial duties so that he could devote his entire time a anyone in the big top. This winter, however, he had to undergo an operation in which part of a bone was removed from his thumb. That may keen him out of the lineup during the early part of the season. Bill Mc Keehnie will do the master-minding at St. Louis this year. Donie Bush. the firm young man who bosses the Pirates, has done himself rather proud in his trade with Chicago's Cubs. # South-Central Golf Meet Set for February

The Phillies have a new boss—Burt Shotton. And Jimmy Ring, rather aged and infirm. The Chicago Cubs went along fine for a while last season. That is, while their pitchers held out. But they didn't have the hitting punch and flopped along towards the close. Now they've gotton Kiki Cuyler for Sparky Adams. That changed the situation very little.

In little more than a month the teams will be heading south for the spring camps. There seems little likelihood of any more deals or trades. So it looks like a repetition of last year. The Yankees in the American league; the Pirates, Giants and possibly the Cards in the National.

Miss King Weds Home Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Josephine King to Herbert Ayers, of Atlanta, formerly of Hartwell, Ga., which was solemnized on Weduesday, December 28, at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother on St. Charles avenue. Dr. S. R. Belk performed the ceremony in the presence of a group of relatives and friends.

The house was decorated with palms, ferns and smilax and the ceremony was performed before an improvised altar of stately palms and seven-branched candelabra, flanked with a tall floor wase of stately Easter lilies. A musical program was rendered

The marriage of Miss Mary Buehler, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Keith Medberry, of Atlanta, formerly of Huron, S. D., was solemnized at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening in the parish house of the Sacred Heart church. The Rev. Father Thomas S. Canning, performed the impressive pale green georgette.

Miss Josephine Reid, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of brown chiffon velvet with hat and accessories to match, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses show-ered with blue delphiniums, yellow snapdragons and lavender sweetpeas, church. The Rev. Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup Easily and cheeply made at home but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found how to save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for results. It gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of ganuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiscol, known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with Sometimes I get very tired of being called an optimist.

Of course everyone knows the old definition of the optimist and the pessimist. "The optimist does not believe there is any fried cake arounda the hole "Personally, I try to realize that my fried cake is around a hole and that the hole is surrounded by fried cake.

It's a kind of fifty-fifty proposition, this living.

Sometimes also I almost disgusted and disheartened with those who are always insisting that "love and inspiration is all that any of us need give to the world." Of course love and inspiration are a great part of what we should give, but once in a while a good old dose of "sending as good as you get" is apt to get one farther along the road in one's own self-respect than this "Polyanna" stuff.

It is very silly to think that everyone in the world loves one. The stronger, better, more splendid a man is, the more enemies he is apt to make. Consequently, it is a good thing when summing up your blessings to count your enemies among them.

Whatever you do, however, remember that no one ever got anywhere by ignoring ac uppercut given with malice aforethought, either physically or by word of mouth. It may soothe one's pride to tell one's friends how much foo big one is to notice the blows or mouthings of those who have Just knocked one silly with a jab, literally or metaphorically, when a good jab in return helps matters more.

I have great sympathy for the little girl who came home from a child's party and cold her mother that she thought her hostess was the most impolite person she had ever seen. "She wouldn't let me play with anything she had," said the child.

"You should not have stayed," said her mother. "You should have

LOSES 2-14 POINTS.

New Orleans, December 28.—(P)— Trading was comparatively light on

The opening was steady at an advance of 4 to 7 points on a continuation of yesterday's buying movement. After opening 5 points up at 19.72 and advancing to 19.75, or 8 points net higher. March later declined until attack and expectations of an improvement in trade demand after the turn of the year.

January sold up to 19.71 and May to 1989, but these prices attracted considerable profit taking under which the market worked gradually lower. Some trade buying or price fixing, believed to be partly for continental account, was reported on a scale account, was reported on a scale was a stracted and January traded up to 19.58 and May to 19.76, 6 to 7 points above yesterday's close. Later in the Wedn account, was reported on a scale above yesterday's close. Later in the down, but it was generally in small lots, while demand from shorts was less active after the covering of the previous day, with the market correspondingly sensitive to small selling orders.

an amount implying heavy consumption abroad. There was also talk that large visible supplies in the United States and Canada are at the expense of stocks of country elevators and on farms.

Rains over the greater part of the corn belt were regarded as likely to interfere with husking and with the movement of corn from rural districts, as well as causing deterioration in grade. Comparative smallness of fresh arrivals of corn at lending terminals today tended further to llift values. Kansas City and Omaha together received only about 100 cars. ## Metropolitan.

A comedy of chance is "Slightly Used" at the Metropolitan, starring pretty May McAvoy and Conrad Nagel. Cynthia was the elder daugh-ter and being unmarried stood in the way of her kid sister's stepping off the carpet. So, taking things in hand, she fakes a husband and conveniently sends him to Europe. Everything works smoothly until it is discovered that a person bearing her chosen name for her husband really exists and comes to claim his bride. Thereupon follow hilarious situations as compli-cations and explanations evolve.

Rialto.

"Wild Geese," in the screen version, now at the Rialto theater, is from the prize-winning novel by Martha Ostenso, which has been read Martha Ostenso, which has been read by more than three million people. It has a big cast, and the story required that every one of them be of stellar ability as well as popularity. There is Belle Bennett, Atlanta's favorite actress, who holds the record for a stock engagement here: Eve Southern, Donald Keith, Jason Robards, Anita Stewart, Wesley Barry, Jack Gard-ner, James Mack and nearly a dozen ner. James Mack and nearly a dozen others of the finest available charac-

"The Beauty Parlor," the two-reel comedy thriller, and the Paramount newsreel, with pictures of the man-hunt for Marian Parker's slayer in California, are on the program.

Ponce de Leon.

A real he-man tale with hair on its chest and blood in its eye is "The Blood Ship." a marvelous screen melodrama, which plays today and Friday at the Ponce de Leon theater, but strange to say, this powerful tale combines its more vigorous elements with a tender and touching romance between the daughter of a see every between the daughter of a sea cap-tain and one of his seamen. "The Blood Ship" will sail right into your heart with its strength and its beauty. Hobart Bosworth, Jacqueline Logan and Richard Arlen are the featured players at the head of an able cast.

West End.

A new program by Lynn White's Harmony Boys, a new song by Dayton Shearin, and the Spanish-American war epic, "The Rough Riders," on the screen make the offering at the West End tonight and Friday one of West End tonight and Friday one of the best bills ever presented at a com-munity theater. Noah Beery, Charles Farrell, George Bancroft and Mary Astor are only a few of the stars ap-pearing in "The Rough Riders." Sat-urday's picture will feature the United States marines in "The Great Mail Robbery."

Tom Mix rides his famous horse, Tom Mix rides his famous horse. Tony, to new screen fame in his latest, "The Arizona Wildeat," which plays the Tudor today, Friday and Saturday. In the picture Mix plays the part of an ex-officer who gained fame on the battlefront and carries his fighting tendencies back to the west where he fights it out with part of the west where he fights it out with outlaws and bandits.

Sacco, Vanzetti, Lindy, Ford Put On 'Honor Roll'

New York, December 28 .- (United News.) - Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Henry Ford, Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti appear together on the 1927 "honor roll" of The Nation, New York liberal weekly, edited by Oswald Garrison Villard.

No comparisons between these "dis-tinguished Americans" was made edi-torially, since each was included under a separate qualification. But the bitterness of The Nation's editorial op-position to execution of the humble Italian immigrants is reflected in their eulogy under the caption: "Heroism."
"Nicolo Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, for the calm. uncompromising, yet forgiving spirit in which they faced a frock-coated lynching."

The famous Boston murder case is further revived by the publication in naming William G. Thompson, Felix Frankfurter, Aldino Felicani and Mrs. Frankfurter. Aldino Felicani and Mrs. Pattern mailed to any address on Glendower Evans under the "Cause of receipt of 10c in silver or stamps. Justice." These winners of mention "spent themselves in the effort to save their commonwealth of Massachusetts from the blackest stain in its history." Lindbergh was "inevitably and out-standingly first in 1927, defying all classification and description." Henry Ford was named under "Business"— for "creating model A and teaching the advertising experts what national advertising can be."

Literature, drama. music. art, journalism, science, public service abroad, public service at home—these branches were represented by a score of impor-tant names, including Will Rogers, Dwight W. Morrow, Don H. Mellett and Eva Legallienne.

Washington, December 28 .- (AP) Grain exports last week from the United States totaled 1,259,000 bushels as compared with bushels the week before.

New York, December 28.—(P)— Twenty-four persons died in New York of alcoholism since last Friday, an official report by Dr. Charles Norris, chief medical examiner, showed today.

During this same period 66 cases of alcoholism were treated at Bellevue hospital, 18 of the patients being women.

Dr. Norris said none of the deaths bushels as compared with 3,944,000 bushels the week before.

Commerce department figures give the following comparisons between last week's exports and those of the previous week:
Wheat 731,000 bushels against 1.771,000; rye 60,000 against 630,000; corn 190,000 against 863,000; barley 215,000 against 863,000.
Canadian grain exported last week

Dr. Norris said none of the deaths was due to poison liquor, and that the liquor while "pretty bad smelling." appeared to be harmless unless used to excess.
